

Terms and Conditions

1. You understand and recognise the high risk of injury with participation in activities like skateboarding. Skate Ed is a skate school where people will try tricks which may go wrong, causing injury to themselves.
2. Skate Ed operates a strict rule that all participants must wear a helmet reducing the risk of head injury.
3. By signing this form you agree to the provision of medical assistance by Skate Ed's staff and or that of outside medical help, should it be necessary. You also therefore accept that Skate Ed shall not be held liable for any acts, omissions or adverse results of any medical treatment administered.
4. At times video footage and photographs are used to promote Skate Ed which may also be shared with companies that sponsor us, etc etc. By signing the disclaimer form you are giving consent for us to use such imagery that may contain your child.
5. You agree to waive all liability claims against Skate Ed and its associated companies, directors, employees and volunteers for any injuries, ailments or other damage to yourself, or equipment whilst participating in our lessons.
6. We strongly recommend that participants wear full protective safety equipment, particularly wrist, knee, and elbow pads. If you do not, you do so at your own risk.
7. You agree to conduct yourself according to the generally accepted rules of safe etiquette whilst participating in sessions within the skate park
8. You should not attempt to perform any maneuvers you feel are beyond your skill level.
9. Children under the age of 6 years are to be accompanied by a parent or guardian at all times whilst at the skatepark. If you decide to leave your child unaccompanied, you do so at your own risk.
10. Abusive, rude or otherwise anti-social behavior will not be tolerated at Skate Ed.
11. You agree to abide by instructions given by Skate Ed staff and volunteers at all times.
12. All invoices must be paid in full within 7 days of the date they are issued.
13. Skate Ed accepts no responsibility for the damage, loss or theft of any personal belongings brought to the skatepark. Personal belongings should not be left around the park.
14. Failure to abide by these generally accepted terms and conditions will result in refusal to participate.
